BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE FACULTY OF HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES IN OSIJEK

The history of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Osijek was marked by three significant events: the founding of the Teacher Training Academy in the academic year 1961/1962, followed by the transformation of the Academy into the Faculty of Education in 1977/1978, and the transformation of the Faculty of Education into the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in 2003/2004.

The Teacher Training Academy was the first institution for the education of teachers in primary and secondary teaching in this part of Croatia and in its sixteen years of existence has graduated as many as 3963 students majoring in the Croatian language, geography, history, the English language, mathematics, physics, biology and chemistry.

The Faculty of Education gradually developed into a research and teaching institution with nine graduate study programmes in the field of humanities, social and natural sciences and arts.

In 1999, the Teacher Training Studies and the Pre-school Education Studies were detached from the Faculty of Education, gradually followed by the Mathematics and Physics Studies and the Biology and Chemistry Studies which became autonomous constituencies of the University of Josip Juraj Strossmayer in Osijek. The present-day Academy of Arts used to be part of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences as well.

The following new study programmes were established over the past 17 years: History (1996/1997), Librarianship (1998/1999), Pedagogy (2003/2004), Psychology (2003/2004), Philosophy (2004/2005), Information Science (2005/2006) and Hungarian Language and Literature (2007/2008).

The following study programmes are currently available at the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences:

- single-major degree study programmes: Croatian Language and Literature

German Language and Literature

Information Science

Psychology

- double-major study programmes: Croatian Language and Literature

German Language and Literature English Language and Literature Hungarian Language and Literature

History Pedagogy Philosophy.

At the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Osijek, there are currently 19 undergraduate study programmes (4 single-major and 15 double-major) and 33 graduate study programmes (7 single-major and 26 double-major).

Three post graduate doctoral study programmes have been founded as well: Literature and Cultural Identities, Linguistics and Pedagogy.

The richness and a comparative advantage of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Osijek lie in the diversity and variety of study programmes.

The study programmes are delivered at departments, subdepartments and studies with a teaching staff of 137 members: 16 full professors, 22 associate professors, 35 assistant professors, 4 senior lecturers, 3 lecturers, 6 senior language instructors, 2 language instructors, 21 senior teaching assistants, 22 teaching assistants and 8 junior researchers.

MISSION

The mission of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Osijek is to be an active stakeholder in higher education and research in the field of humanities and social sciences. The basic mission of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences is to educate students to meet measurable learning standards and acquire distinct knowledge, professional competencies and skills. By acquiring knowledge and skills at the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, future professionals are trained to be responsible professionals in both individual and team work within the community.

VISION

The Strategic Plan of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences sets off from the idea of the Faculty being a strong regional, international and national centre of humanities and social sciences with a focus on systematic development and strengthening of its research groups and fostering teaching programmes that offer students knowledge and skills required to meet the challenges of modern society.

VALUES

The Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences fosters the following organizational values in its work:

- Credibility Faculty staff carry out their tasks independently, objectively, justly and fairly, and their decisions and judgments are based on collected evidence;
- Professionalism the Faculty seeks to achieve high professional standards in its work;
- Responsibility the Faculty is responsible for its work to the society as a whole;
- Adaptability the Faculty adapts to the needs of the stakeholders in higher education and research;
- Cooperation the Faculty encourages all forms of cooperation in addressing possible concerns and challenges arising from the introduction of new activities;
- Transparency reflected in the transparent work and confidence building measures; the work results are published on the Faculty website.

EXTERNAL ENVIRONMENT SCAN

Due to its geographical location and excellence of performance, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Osijek has been designated as an international teaching and research centre of humanities and social studies research in this part of Europe. The vicinity of three state borders and the quality of academic programmes have turned the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Osijek into the backbone of the humanities and social studies attracting students both from Croatia and the neighbouring countries.

The moderate size of the city makes the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Osijek more attractive to students from other parts of Croatia who consider this environment convenient for education and work opportunities.

The Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Osijek is recognized in the local community as the centre of educational, research and cultural events.

Bearing in mind that higher education is a public good and a public responsibility, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Osijek has been actively participating in the development of the local and wider community.

GENERAL STRATEGIC OBJECTIVES

The postulates of the Strategic Plan of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Osijek are based on the strategic orientation towards a knowledge-based society. Following these postulates, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Osijek will continuously enhance and develop the following general strategic objectives:

- 1. TEACHING PROCESS
- 2. RESEARCH AND INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION
- 3. THE QUALITY ASSURANCE SYSTEM FOR RESEARCH AND EDUCATION
- 4. OUTREACH AND DEVELOPMENT

The Faculty management will submit annual reports on the implementation of the objectives and activities defined in the Strategic Plan of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Osijek. The Faculty will publish reports on the implementation of the Strategy for each calendar year and will lay down the indicators and criteria that will serve as the foundation for the monitoring of the achievements.

1. STRATEGIC OBJECTIVE - TEACHING

Objective 1.1. STUDY PROGRAMMES

Well-defined study programmes provide a key element for good teaching. It is therefore necessary to continually improve and update the existing study programmes. It is also very important to introduce new study programmes, which should be carried out in a balanced and systematic manner, in line with the labour market demands, as well as with the available human resources and infrastructure facilities.

The effectiveness of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences lies in the cooperation of its organisational units (departments, subdepartments, study programmes) in the development and implementation of interdisciplinary study programmes, where interdisciplinarity will not become an end in itself but a reflection of the potency of the diversity of scientific and professional issues tackled by the research and teaching staff at the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences.

Specific objective 1.1.1.	Improve existing study programmes
Specific objective I 1.1.2.	Continually assess and assure the quality of all study programmes and their implementation
Specific objective 1.1.3.	Develop and implement new study programmes in the field of humanities and social sciences
Specific objective 1.1.4.	Establish institutional cooperation with public and state institutions and companies in the planning, organisation and implementation of study programmes, while strongly encouraging such cooperation at the University level

Objective 1.2. TEACHERS AND TEACHING

Teachers and teaching conditions have a decisive role in the quality of the teaching process. It is, therefore, one of the basic strategic objectives of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences to continually and systematically improve the quality of teaching in line with modern trends and requirements in higher education while at the same time increasing, in a balanced manner, the number of qualified and competent academic staff members.

Specific objective 1.2.1.	Increase the number of full-time academic staff members, while at the same time gradually reduce the share of part-time teachers in the implementation of study programmes
Specific objective 1.2.2.	Organise professional training of teachers with a view to improve teaching
Specific objective 1.2.3.	Improve material conditions for the implementation of the teaching process, equip classrooms and teachers' offices

4. STRATEGIC OBJECTIVE - OUTREACH AND DEVELOPMENT

The Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Osijek fosters and encourages participation of its employees in professional activities, both in the region and in the wider context. Employees who engage in outside professional activities have the task to share their achievements and knowledge, and transfer their knowledge and skills to experts from other organizations, firms and institutions.

In accordance with its orientation towards a close cooperation with the local community, it is essential for the Faculty to establish new forms of formal education through training programmes that provide broader knowledge and competences and are adapted to the needs of the participants.

At the Faculty there are many highly qualified employees who actively participate in the working groups for the adoption of new rules and regulations.

The Faculty also encourages permanent collaboration with organizations, firms and institutions on projects of mutual interest.

The outreach and development part of the Strategy of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Osijek describes the activities that contribute to the qualitative promotion of professional activities of faculty employees, and of external stakeholders.

In this sense, outreach and development includes the following areas:

- 1. Lifelong learning

5. RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT

The Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Osijek is one of the constituents of the Josip Juraj Strossmayer University of Osijek and is financed, for the most part, out of the Government Budget of the Republic of Croatia.

The Faculty acquires a part of its financial means through its own activity:

- income from the tuition fees (self-funding students, subsidized scholarships)
- income from doctoral study programmes
- income from lifelong learning programmes
- income from research projects of Faculty employees
- income from publishing

As a user of the government budget, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences is obliged to spend the financial means according to the Act on Scientific Activity and Higher Education, the Government Budget Act on Execution of the State Budget, and the Ordinance on the Criteria for Using the Income of the Budget Users Acquired on the Market from Primary and Other Activities.

In order to reach all fundamental strategic objectives it is necessary to develop three fundamental resources:

- human resources
- material resources
- financial resources

Objective 5.1. HUMAN RESOURCES

The development of human resources involves hiring of teaching staff, associates and administrative and maintenance staff, as well as the quality of the personal standard of all employees and students.

- Specific objective 5.1.1. Focus on the employment of teaching staff and associates according to the needs of individual organisational units
- Specific objective 5.1.2. Focus on the employment of administrative and maintenance staff according to the needs of common Faculty services, as well as individual organisational units
- Specific objective 5.1.3. Organise professional training of employees
- Specific objective 5.1.4. Give financial support to teaching assistants and research assistants for the preparation of doctoral theses

Specific objective 5.1.5. Financially support publishing of university textbooks and other Faculty publications

Specific objective 5.1.6. Organize annual medical exams of employees

Activity	Expected outcomes	Performance indicators	Monitoring mechanisms
	Objective 5.1. HUN	MAN RESOURCES
Hire teaching staff and associates	An increase in the number of new teaching staff and associates	The number of new teaching staff and associates	Decision of the Faculty Council on the appointment of teaching and associate staff; Analysis of the number of employees

Organise annual medical exams of employees	Access of employees to medical exams	The number of employees who have completed their medical exam	Report on the realization of organized medical exams; Invested financial means

Objective 5.2. MATERIAL RESOURCES

A constant improvement and development of material resources should make for a pleasant working environment. It is also necessary to take constant care of the availability of contemporary resources for teaching, research and professional work.

Specific objective 5.2.1. Each year involve all organisational units in the process of acquiring material means

Specific objective 5.2.2. Upgrade computer equipment of students and all employees

Specific objective 5.2.3.	Improve the equipment of student and employee working spaces
Specific objective 5.2.4.	Obtain new software for teaching, research and professional work
Specific objective 5.2.5.	Prepare the documentation for the reconstruction of the attic of the existing building
Specific objective 5.2.6.	Prepare the preliminary documentation for the construction of a new Faculty building with three floors and an underground garage

Activity	Expected outcomes	Performance indicators	Monitoring mechanisms
