

Call for Papers: ELOPE, Vol. 19, No. 1 (June 2022) Special Issue

ELOPE: English Language Overseas Perspectives and Enquiries (<http://revije.ff.uni-lj.si/elope>) is a double-blind, peer-reviewed academic journal that publishes original research articles, studies and essays that address issues of English language, literature, teaching and translation. It has been included in several bibliography databases (Scopus, ERIH+, MLA). According to SCImago, ELOPE ranks in the first quartile (SJR 2020: 0.18) and according to Scopus, in the second quartile (SNIP 2020: 0.460).

The guest editors, Michelle Gadpaille and Tjaša Mohar, warmly invite contributors to submit original research for the June 2022 issue of the journal in honour of Alice Munro's 90th birthday.

Papers are solicited in the fields of literature, linguistics, didactics and translation that focus on any relevant aspect of Munro's fiction oeuvre.

Potential topics include but are not limited to the following:

- Short prose and genre studies; cross-generic comparisons
- Munro in various contexts: regional, national, generational
- Reception across cultures and languages; global Munro
- Translation and stylistic studies of Munro's short fiction
- Interdisciplinary and innovative literary-critical approaches
- Munro's stories in the classroom

The language of contributions is English. Papers should be between 5,000 and 8,000 words in length, with an abstract of about 150 words. They should conform to the author guidelines available here, and should be submitted via the ELOPE platform available here. Any technical inquiries can be sent to Andrej Stopar (andrej.stopar@ff.uni-lj.si).

The abstract submission deadline is 25 February 2022.
