

Call for participation in PhD training school

Urban Chronicles in Empirical Context

The Training School Urban Chronicles in Empirical Context will take place on 26-28 April 2022 in Osijek, Croatia and the participants will engage in lectures on space in literature, city walks, analysis of local urban chronicles and discussion workshops as well as creative workshops. The host institution Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences Osijek offers a three-day training school from the literature and cultural identity perspective with a theoretical and practical (fieldwork and methodology included) approach to be organized within the Osijek doctoral programme "Literature and Cultural Identity".

Participation for local and international doctoral candidates is free of charge and financial support for travel and accommodation of international trainees is available. Applications by doctoral candidates from the countries participating in the COST Action CA18126 Writing Urban Places are highly encouraged.

Apply by filling in the application form <https://forms.gle/X7468JevFaHXXaEA9> no later than 1 March 2022.

Local organizing team
Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences Osijek
Supported by the Academy of Arts and Culture Osijek

Assist. Prof. Sonja Novak
Assist. Prof. Stephanie Jug
Full Prof. Kristina Peternai Andrić
Full Prof. Zoltan Medve
Assoc. Prof. Ljubica Matek
Assist. Prof. Jasna Poljak Rehlicki
Iris Spajić, research assistant, PhD candidate
Marijana Mandić, research assistant, PhD candidate

Host City: Osijek (Croatia)
Title: Urban Chronicles in Empirical Context
Type of event: Training school for Ph.D. candidates within the framework of the COST Action CA18126 Writing Urban Places. New Narratives of the European City.
Dates: 26 – 28 April 2022
Contact person: For further information please contact us at wg2.wup@gmail.com or Sonja Novak snovak@ffos.hr

Photo by ©Stephanie Jug.

COST is supported by the EU Framework Programme Horizon 2020