FIRST CALL

Dear colleagues,

The Department of Pedagogy at the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, Josip Juraj Strossmayer University of Osijek, the Department of Educational Sciences at the Faculty of Arts, University of Ljubljana, Slovenia and the Croatian Academy of Sciences and Arts, Center for Scientific Work in Vinkovci invite you to

2nd International Scientific Conference

Global and Local Perspectives of Pedagogy

The conference is designed as a platform for exchanging pedagogical theoretical knowledge, empirical research, ideas, and experiences from pedagogical practice, emphasizing the dynamics between global and local perspectives of pedagogy.

The conference aims to facilitate interaction between science and practice. Some topics that will be discussed at the conference include innovations, changes and challenges in education, developing resilience in education, artificial intelligence and technology in the education system, professional learning and development, education for sustainable development, classroom research, adult education and a student section. A more detailed description of the subtopics is available on the conference website. These topics are indicative and the participants can submit the papers that may not fit within them. The conference includes plenary lectures, oral presentations, posters, workshops, self-organized symposia and PED “agogical” talk.

Conference date: June 11-13, 2025

Conference venue: Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Osijek, Lorenza Jäger 9, Osijek, Croatia
