Information about the congress proceedings:

The lectures given at the congress will be published in the book series “A MANYE Kongresszusok Előadásai” (“HAALLT Congress Publications”) in the online system of the Akadémiai Kiadó (<https://mersz.hu/a-manye-kongresszusok-eloadasai>) in the year following the congress. The series has an ISSN number, and the volumes are assigned a DOI identifier.

The written version of the presentations given at the congress must be prepared and submitted in accordance with the editorial guidelines. The submitted papers will be reviewed, and only those papers that meet the formal and content requirements and are supported by the reviewers will be included in the editorial process and may appear in the volume of papers. Information and editorial guidelines: <https://many.hu/kongresszusi-kiadvanyok/>

Additional information regarding the professional program and travel:

The professional program is scheduled to begin on Monday, April 14, at 9:00 AM with the opening ceremony, the Brassai Sámuel Award ceremony, and plenary lectures, followed by sectional presentations. The congress will last until Tuesday, April 15, at 5:00 PM, concluding with a final plenary lecture. A welcome event and reception will be held for participants on Sunday, April 13, at 7:00 PM, and a communal dinner will be provided on Monday evening as well. We recommend arriving on Sunday evening and departing on Tuesday evening.

On the first day of the congress, following the opening ceremony and group lunch, the event will continue with sectional presentations, each lasting approximately 2 hours, consisting of six 20-minute presentations. Each presentation is allocated 15 minutes, followed by a 5-minute discussion.

On Monday, April 14, at 1:00 PM, we plan to hold the HAALLT General Assembly, which is expected to conclude at 2:00 PM. For non-members, a separate program will be provided during this time slot. The Vukovar Hungarian Association's handicraft groups will host interactive workshops, while the Kopács Cultural Association will present traditional customs. Additionally, visitors can explore an exhibition showcasing the folk costumes of Hungarians in Croatia, displayed in the corridors of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences.

The organizers will provide bus transportation between Pécs and Osijek (round trip). The bus will depart from Pécs to Osijek on Sunday, April 13, 2025, at 3:00 PM and return from Osijek to Pécs on Tuesday, April 15, 2025, at 5:00 PM. The bus will be waiting for congress participants at the Pécs Railway Station. Since this transportation is exclusively organized for congress participants, it is free of charge for all attendees who arrive at the Pécs railway station by 3:00 PM. To ensure smooth organization, prior registration for the bus service is required via the following link:

https://docs.google.com/forms/d/1uoB_xclNqXtBjHUSOUttEG5s31Siy_AEbMNdwQk6ho0/edit.

Intercity trains run between Budapest and Pécs every two hours. A train service also operates between Pécs and Osijek, but its schedule varies on weekends. On Sundays, trains depart from Pécs to Osijek at 2:50 PM, 4:50 PM, and 6:50 PM, with a transfer on the Croatian side in Beli Manastir. On weekdays, the first train to Osijek departs from Pécs at 5:08 AM, followed by departures at 6:50 AM, 8:50 AM, 12:50 PM, 2:50 PM, 4:50 PM, and 6:50 PM. For more information on ticket purchases and schedules, please visit the following multilingual website: <https://int.bahn.de/en>.

Additionally, a direct FlixBus service is available from Budapest to Osijek. On April 13, the bus departs from Budapest Népliget Station at 8:30 PM and arrives in Osijek at 11:59 PM without any transfers. For the return journey to Budapest, FlixBus offers departures on Monday, April 14, and Tuesday, April 15, at 8:00 AM, 12:00 PM, and 5:30 PM. For more details on ticket purchases and schedules, please visit the following website, which is also available in Hungarian: <https://shop.flixbus.hu/>

Participants arriving by car and unable to secure parking at their accommodation will receive assistance. On Sunday evening, parking will be available inside the university courtyard for the entire duration of the congress. On Monday and Tuesday, university students will assist in finding parking spaces in front of the Faculty of Humanities building.

Participants will be welcomed at the entrance of the Faculty of Humanities building during the event. A registration desk, staffed by university students, will be available until the congress concludes and will also serve as an information point.

A refreshment area will be available throughout the day, offering beverages, with students assisting participants as needed.

The registration fee includes:

- Opportunity to present and participate in the congress
- Bus transportation between Pécs and Osijek on Sunday (April 13) and between Osijek and Pécs on Tuesday (April 15) (details provided in previous circulars)
- Congress package
- Meals and reception on both days
- Coffee breaks
- Publication of the presented papers in the congress volume (subject to approval)
- Online publication of plenary, poster, and sectional presentations in the congress study volume

Additional information:

Beyond the professional program, we encourage participants to combine their visit with a pleasant excursion. Osijek, situated on the banks of the Drava River, is the largest city in Slavonia and the fourth-largest city in Croatia, serving as the county seat of Osijek-Baranja County. The city and its surroundings are of great significance from a tourism perspective (see, for example, <https://hu.wikipedia.org/wiki/Esz%C3%A9k>). Osijek is home to the largest Hungarian minority community in Croatia, making it especially meaningful that the XXX. Hungarian Conference on Applied Linguistics will be hosted by the University of Osijek. We are delighted to welcome our linguist colleagues!
